

Some Notes on the Winter Schedule for Lectors and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

1. As in the past, soon there will be several sign-up sheets in the narthex of church for ministers at the Christmas Eve and Christmas Day liturgies and for the New Year's Eve and New Year's Day liturgies. We're very grateful for your help during the holidays.
2. Even though we have about 125 parishioners engaged in these two ministries, there are several variables that make the scheduling difficult, such as serving in two ministries, offering to minister at several different weekend Masses and having more volunteers for some Masses and not enough for others. This is especially true for the readers. We have 20 readers for the 500p, 8 for the 730a, 17 for the 900a, 10 for the 1030a and 5 for the Noon Mass. Trying to balance the number of opportunities each of you have to read, I limited some of you to only one of your choices of Mass times. I also took some of you off of the regular rotation of Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion. Part of my rationale for doing that was that it is easier for you to sub at the last minute for a Communion Minister than it is for a Lector. I hope this works better for everyone. Please let me know if it doesn't work and I will make some changes in the spring schedule.
3. Since there are only 12 Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion signed up for the Noon Mass, only 6 ministers have been assigned per Mass. However, there are several weekends when there are some blank lines in the schedule. (I think that's because even the computerized scheduler doesn't want to just keep repeating the same names every two weeks!) As in the past, please just come forward as a volunteer.
4. Every effort is being made to finally have a workshop for both of these ministries and for the ushers / greeters. These workshops will be a review of some of the "nuts and bolts" of the ministry. At this time, we're looking at offering the workshops on three successive Saturdays in February. More information will be forth coming in January.
5. There are about 7 Lector Workbooks left in the sacristy. Please pick one up if you haven't yet done so yet.
6. Here are some parishioners who are willing to serve as subs. Extraordinary Ministers: Stephanie Boltas, Julie Connelly, Tom & Pixie Etzkorn, Joan Korpala, & Greg Mathiesen. Lectors: Amy Cole-Buehler, Tom Etzkorn & Patrick Schoo.

On behalf of the parish, I want to thank you for your service and ministry!

Rev. Chuck Barthel
